Dear Mr. Weisberg,

Jim Leavelle seems to be a nice guy. I'm sure we'll get along with him fine.

Now Harold would you have anything against me writing a book going against "Oswald Talked". I know you already had something written up about it, but I didn't know if you were going to publish it. I really would like to write against that book. But I want it if you don't agree with me. Jim Leavelle would be able to tell me what happen and you could help me with other things. As you can tell, "Oswald Talked" has not come yet, As soon as it does I'm going to read it. Soon As I finish the book I'm working on now I'll get started on the one about "Oswald Talked".
